

IEDLI

International Emergency Department
Leadership Institute

5-11 November 2018 | Brussels, Belgium

WHAT IS IEDLI?

Do you have the strategies you need to lead a successful emergency department?
Are you struggling to adapt your ED to today's healthcare changes?

The IEDLI program is designed to provide ED leaders with the skills and knowledge they need to operate successful emergency departments in any part of the world. This one-week course consists of over 35 hours of interactive lectures and workshops that will help you:

- Establish the ED's role within the hospital
- Educate and motivate a new generation of emergency physicians and nurses
- Improve efficiency and control costs
- Decrease overcrowding
- Develop quality improvement programs
- Form a strong administrative structure

The International Emergency Department Leadership Institute (IEDLI) is taught by Harvard Medical School faculty and other international experts. The IEDLI program will challenge the way you think about the problems facing your emergency department.
